Bus routes to change

Sunday, August 20, will mark the second step in a plan to provide better bus service to points on campus and facilitate the flow of automobile traffic on 87 Avenue.

At that time, Edmonton Transit System (ETS) buses will make their stops and layovers on 89 Avenue instead of 87 Avenue. By moving the bus traffic two blocks north, 87 Avenue will be free to handle the traffic diverted there by the closing of the east approach to Stadium Carpark.

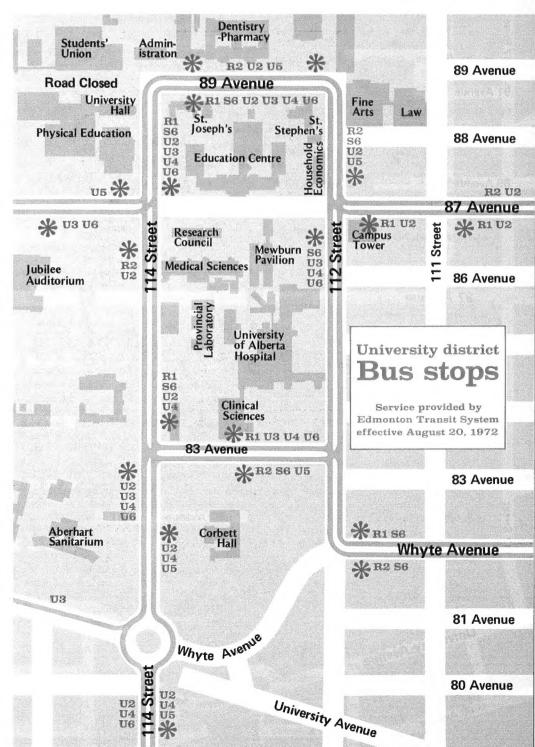

During the Winter Session, there are more than 30,000 people in the University area every day. These include staff from University Hospital, Jubilee Auditorium, the University, and commercial outlets, as well as students. ETS statistics show that more than 15,000 passengers (total of those arriving at and leaving the University area) used the buses each day during the last Winter Session.

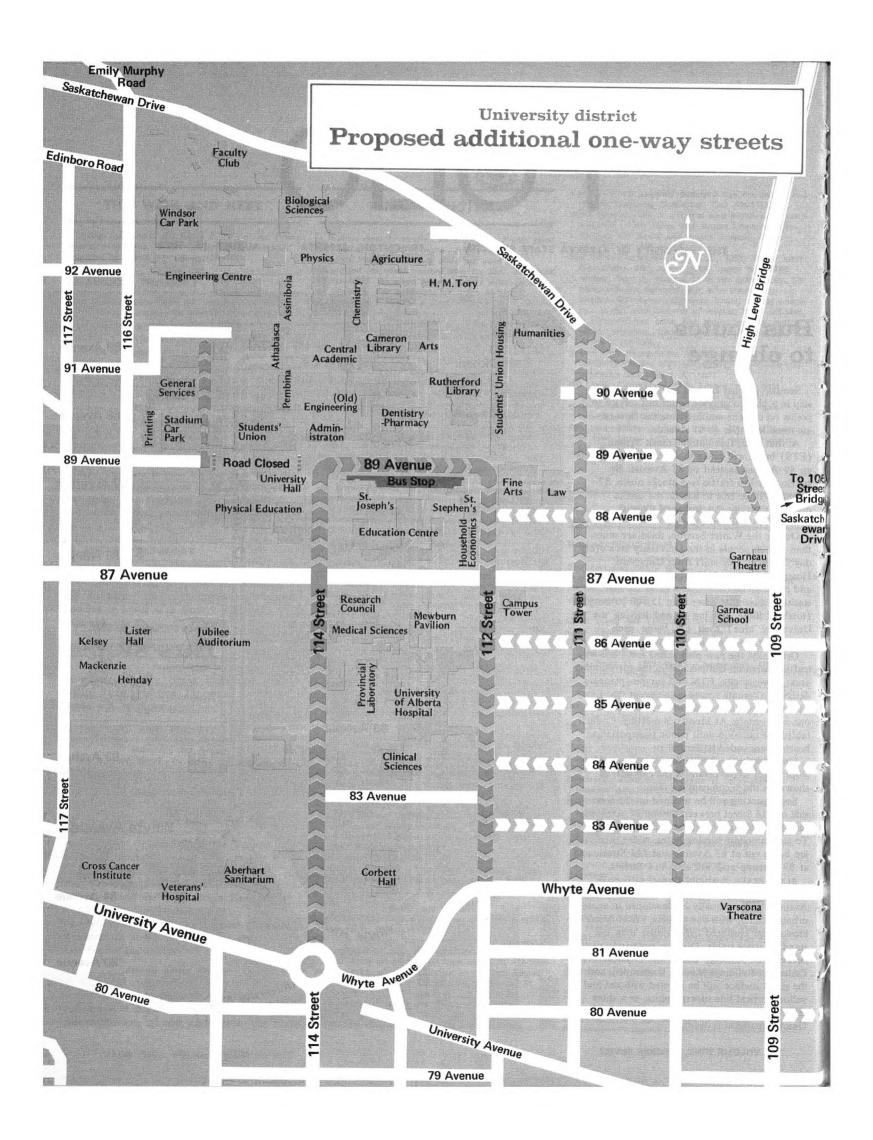

Originally, the new plan called for a one-way traffic system on campus and in the surrounding area; however city, ETS, and campus planners designed alternate routes in the event that City Council approval would not be given to the one-way system. At Monday's meeting, Council tabled the question until public transportation hearings are ended in the fall.

Under the new plan there will be several bus stops closer to the centre of the campus, as shown on the accompanying map.

Some parking will be retained on the west side of 114 Street between 89 and 87 Avenues; the meters along 89 Avenue will be removed. To accommodate turning buses, wider corners are being cut at 87 Avenue and 112 Street, and at 89 Avenue and 112 and 114 Streets.

BLAKE PRATT, Assistant Project Officer in the Campus Development Office, says all of 89 Avenue "will eventually be developed in an urban manner, with bus shelters, information kiosks, and clustered lights rather than the standard street lights. The new pedestrian mall between the Students' Union and Physical Education Buildings is being landscaped, and the street surface will be painted with red and yellow vertical-line supergraphics, as a short term treatment, until the matter of Students' Union expansion is decided."

PROPOSED ONE-WAY LOOP DELAYED

This is the one-way street system proposed by the University for the campus and the surrounding area. Suggested changes are shown in orange. The intention is to simplify traffic movement to and from the University, and to relieve congestion along major arteries and intersections. So far, though, the proposed one-way system has not been approved by City Council, who have tabled the matter pending the close of public transportation hearings in November.

UNIVERSITY HOSTS INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION

The International Geographical Union Commission on Population Geography met on campus during the first week of August at a symposium devoted to internal migration. Forty-one participants came from the following 19 countries: Australia, Austria, Brazil, Canada, France, Ghana, Great Britain, India, Lesotho, Madagascar, Mexico, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, Sierra Leone, Sweden, USA, USSR, and West Germany.

Forty-one papers were discussed at seven sessions, organized by different members of the Commission. The sessions dealt with: population movement in zones of frontier settlement (this session was held jointly with the Symposium on Frontier Settlement meeting simultaneously in Edmonton); the theoretical problems of migration research; the acquisition and handling of data; interregional migration; circulatory and ephemeral migrations; selectivity of migration, and ruralurban migration. Members of the symposium also took part in a field trip to the Peace River region.

The meeting was organized by LESZEK A. KOSINSKY. Professor of Geography and corresponding member of the Commission, and by CHARLES L. KEYS, a graduate student in Geography. The proceedings of the meeting will be published in England.

NOTICES

CHILDREN NEEDED FOR MUSIC PROGRAMS

University staff who have children in grade VII are invited to apply on their behalf for instruction in the music programs being offered for the tenth year by the Music Education Laboratory (MELAB) during 1972-73.

The children will form a band and a beginning string orchestra, and the annual fee of $20 includes the use of an instrument during the first year. No musical experience is required.

For further information, telephone 432-3680 or 439-2415 or write to alan smith, Associate Professor, Department of Secondary Education.

EXPERIMENTAL CLASSROOMS AVAILABLE

Due to the demand for Room 289 Central Academic Building, the Committee to Investigate Teaching has undertaken the development of a second alternate teaching facility.

Room M232 in the Biological Sciences Centre has been chosen for the second experimental classroom, and throughout the summer graduate students of the Department of Art and Design, under the direction of BRUCE BENTZ, Assistant Professor, have been designing and refurnishing Room M232. It is anticipated the room will be ready for the fall session.

Those interested in viewing and/or booking either of the experimental classrooms are asked to contact DAVID OTTO, Research Project Director, Institutional Research and Planning, 432-5295.

DAY CARE FACILITIES NEEDED

Good quality day care for infants is urgently needed by University students and others in the University area. This service has, for some years, been offered throughout the city, but lack of homes to serve in the University area has drastically limited the service here. If you know of persons who can offer care for one or two children in their homes and are willing to have their homes evaluated for day care, please ask them to telephone Family Day Care at City Social Service, 429-5171.

QUESTIONNAIRE ON SEX ROLES

It has been requested that women participating in the doctoral study of sex-role attitudes should return their completed questionnaires as soon as possible. If anyone has misplaced their survey form, or hesitates to complete it, they should call L. L. SCHMIDT at 488-7529 during evenings only.
